

THE CONCERNS OF THE MOST HIGH

Table of Contents
Preface and Introduction
Interlude

THE CONCERNS OF THE MOST HIGH

A – What is a Prophet of God?

- A1 – Prophets Bear the Call of God
- A2 – God is Very Concerned About Self-Appointed Prophets
- A3 – Prophets Have a Hard Life
- A4 – Prophets Are Not to be Trifled With
- A5 – Prophets Bring a Message of Believing God
- A6 – Message is About the Agenda of the Kingdom of God

B – God’s Concerns – Substandard Practice of His Code of Law

- B1 – Out-of-Control Lawless Behavior
- B2 – Selfish and Flagrant Capitalism

C – God’s Concerns – Unacceptable Expressions of Faith

- C1 – Revision of the Faith to Increase Appeal
- C2 – Interest and Priorities are Really Elsewhere
- C3 – Relentless Program Obscures Actual Concerns

D – God’s Concerns – An Inflated Concept of Privilege

- C1 – Forgetful of Early Experiences in Meeting God
- C2 – Oblivious or Resistant to God’s Expectations
- C3 – Brazen and Shameless Behavior

E – God’s Concerns – Failure to Recognize Escalated Dealings

F – God’s Hope - A Real Response from His People

Interlude

Appendix A – Categories for the Old Testament Prophets

Appendix B – Analysis - Minor Prophets (pre-exile)

- B1 – Joel; B2 – Obadiah; B3 – Jonah; B4 – Nahum; B5 – Zephaniah; B6 – Micah; B7 – Hosea; B8 – Habakkuk; B9 – Amos.

Appendix C – Analysis - Minor Prophets (exile and after)

- C1 – Lamentations; C2 – Daniel; C3 – Zechariah; C4 – Haggai; C5 – Malachi.

Appendix D – Analysis - Major Old Testament Prophets

- D1 – Isaiah; D2 – Jeremiah; D3 – Ezekiel.

Appendix E - Analysis - The Apocalypse of John